REMINISCING

Today I remember my First Love, Jesus.

Today I am grateful that Jesus has loved me with an everlasting love.

I remember the first encounter I had with Him.

Such an overwhelming joy to know that the Almighty God loves me.

A joy to know that God is mindful of me.

I remember, oh I remember this day!

My heart raced, it was and still is a "wow" experience as Jesus took me through a wide journey just to realize my steps were ordered to the point of meeting Him in a strange land.

Jesus answered the questions in my heart, troubling question from the days of a curious teenager. Asking who I was, what my life is about, asking why I am here on earth and what my life would turn out to be.

Little did I know that the Master & orchestrator of my life was directing the procession of His bride.

My steps were ordered, oh yes it was.

Jesus found me, He found me and loved me.

Jesus found me and brought me out of darkness, out of a life of confusion and purposelessness.

He sought after me like one who seeks for hidden precious treasures, found me & loved me.

I remember the encounter, how I rolled & cried out. (I cried out from the heart of one who sought for a God). How I ran and everyone present thought I had gone crazy.

Like wild fire, I knew I was in for it; I was in for a journey with Jesus. I knew His hands where upon me and my life can no longer be the same.

He spoke the depth of His love into my heart, that He will never leave me nor forsake me.

That He would hold me by my hands and lead me in the way that I would go.

I felt the fire, my hands burned & shook.

I felt His Love, deep in my bones,
I knew it!

Then I sought after Him, I did.

I sought after that Love I had never known.

I took His word, the Bible. I remember the small blue covered Gideon bible, so small yet so mighty. It saved my life.

I asked questions, oh I asked questions in my naivety, foolish questions most of the time.

In my curiosity to know the Lord, I asked questions.

Oh bless the hearts of those who patiently answered me, they stayed with me most times till dawn.

Evenings after lectures into midnights into the break of dawn I asked questions, I sought to know Him. Oh bless the hearts of those who pardoned my ignorance.

I wanted to know about Jesus, about John, about Peter, about the disciples, about Paul, about the way words were used in the Bible, about what every parable really meant, oh I asked!

And as I read I was introduced to the Holy Spirit, oh the Holy Spirit, the shocker of my life!

Wow, what a grand & sweet entrance. He introduced Himself to me dwelling in my heart, opening my heart & mind to understand things.

How I blurted in tongues that came out like rushing water.

Sweet Holy Spirit, how he was so evident with manifestations. I still re-live the encounter, a "wow" experience. Haven read the Word; I was set out to be baptized in water to arise to my rightful position with the Father where victory is announced.

In my growth from ignorance I prayed things like "going right now to be with God". Hahaha!.

Often times I asked troubling question about the Trinity, about who created God etc, out of the heart of one who sought to know

God. Ha-ha! Thank God for His Mercy.

It's an overwhelming joy, the Joy of my salvation. The Joy can never be replaced or traded for anything.

I remember how I stood every night at the rooftop of an eight story building of my university (called "Sky" or "Rooftop") and prayed and every time the Holy Spirit spoke back to me.

Little did I know that God had a plan for me. A plan & a purpose for my life He spoke to my heart. Yes!

Hahaha! How zealous I was about that plan yet to be revealed except in glimpse & pieces.

How I became so devoted to Him and in every work of my University church and every affairs of ministry.

Fast I grew in leadership & mentoring, so fast I must say, so so fast. Praying for people, for the sick, praying for others to have same encounter, laying on of hands for the infilling of the Holy Ghost.

Soon the rooftop where I prayed every night became a rooftop fellowship meeting ground (even till date).

With reckless abandonment I cared about only the things that mattered, that's of the Spirit. Almost giving up my education, (Thank God for the Christian private University I attended that helped me with balance)

I sang my heart out & led in it, I prayed till my eyes turned brown. I sought after Him.

Today He still holds my hands and takes me through this life long journey and I love every bit of it.

Thank You Father, thank You
Jesus, thank You Holy Spirit.

I remember today my First Love

IN HIM

I run to Him for life and in Him I hear SAFE.

He hears my call, my plea,

Even when I thought I had no meaning, no purpose,

God rewrote the text of my life, when I opened the book of my heart and he called me to His purpose.

He picked me from the miry clay, from the gutters, when my life was shattered and bitter,

When hells chains had me, He took me in His arms.

Before a single tear He knows and answers speedily.

He spoke the depth of His love into my heart that my mind can't seem to fathom.

When I sought for love from those I thought ought to,

He said I should rather long to know Him,

For He would always be there.

My God, My Peace, oh I would run
to Him,

To His words of truth, I would run
the race till I see His face,

I bask in the glory of His Grace.

I would soar on wings like eagles held by the Hands of God, I would run and not go tired,

For He has called me by a new name

I am no more termed forsaken and my land shall no more be termed desolate cause he has called me “My delight is in her”.

I'm His oath- Oath of God

He has made joy forever.

GOD'S LOVE

In 1 Corinthians 13 we see that, LOVE is a life, it's a nature, it gives without return, it sees the best in the midst of flaws, it's all encompassing, its unconditional, its sacrificial, it goes all out to bring the best in someone else, it forgives even before offense is conceived. That's exactly what Jesus did for me.

Make a conscious decision to like to Love, live to Love, choose to Love, think to Love, acts of Love, heart of Love, love to Love, breath Love, sleep Love, eat Love, wear

Love, be Love, speak Love, show
Love. Gods' kind of Love.

See someone else through the eyes of God, see yourself through His eyes, see the way He cherishes you, the way He loves you, the way His eyes sparkles cause of you, the way
He longs for you to always be with Him, just Hush a little bit and see yourself through the eye of God, what can you see, read, feel, sense, or perceive? Cause God is Love.

Remember He loves you with an everlasting love, with all His might, all His strength, and does so not only in tongue and words but in deeds and truth, likewise you.....do same! Feel the warmth of His embrace. Love never fails. He loves YOU!

Beloved,

You too can experience this encounters with Jesus. It's a whole new life entirely. Jesus will lead you by your hands and walk with you, talk with you as you devote to Him.

Every question in your heart and heart ache experiences will be resolved with Jesus. Jesus brings healing to your heart, wipes your tears and cleanses your soul.

If you will like to experience this Love that Jesus brings, you would have to give up your old ways, repent of your sins and receive Jesus as Your Lord and Saviour.

Do it now by Praying as follows:

Dear Father I need You, I know I have lived in sin and rejected your love. I believe that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God and He died for my sins to pay the price for my forgiveness, resurrected from the dead and He is alive and is coming back again. I believe that with His Blood I am cleansed from my sins. I receive Jesus as Lord and my personal Saviour forever. Dwell in my life Lord Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit. Thank You Jesus for saving me.

I know that I am born again and I enjoy the new life in Christ Jesus. I am a child of God. In Jesus name I pray. Amen.

If you said this prayer, Congratulations! And welcome to the sweet life. Praise God!
